RACE TROUBLES.

An Outbreak in South Carolina Prevented by Militia.

CHARLESTON (S. C.), July 16.—[By the Associated Press.] A dispatch from Blackville says: The white people of Barnwell county have prevented any further trouble at the Kearsse settlement. Most of the detachment of military which went to Kearsse have departed. Their captain said today: "I have not the slightest doubt there would have been very serious trouble at Kearsse had our squad not arrived promptly on the field." The riotous negroes have dispersed. Some of them will be arrested.

Vicksburg (Miss.), July 16.—Reliable persons arrive from Vicksburg today say that seven negroes were killed and six wounded in the affray with a white posse near Mer Rouge, told in yesterday's dispatches.

WORK OF CONGRESS.

Nominations Confirmed by the Senate.

Vigorous Opposition to an Appropriation for Irrigation Surveys.

An Intimation That the Scheme is a Land-grabbers' Device.

The House Unable to Transact Any Business Owing to a Lack of a Quorum—Obstinate Absentees.

By Telegraph to The Times.

WASHINGTON (D. C.), July 16.—[By the Associated Press.] Senate.—The Senate went into executive session for the purpose of considering the nominations of five appraisers of merchandise, recently made by the President under the Customs Administrative Bill. The five general appraisers whose nominations were confirmed are Charles H. Ham of Illinois, James A. Jewell of New York, George H. Sharpe of New York, George C. Tichenor of the District of Columbia, and Joseph B. Wilkinson of Louisiana.

Mr. Pasco offered a resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations, calling on the Secretary of State for information as to the arrest by Spanish authorities in Havana of A. J. Diaz, an American citizen and minister of the gospel.

Mr. Power offered a resolution, which was agreed to, calling on the Secretary of the Interior for information as to the personnel of the geological survey, its duties, compensation, etc.

The resolution offered yesterday by Mr. Cullom as to transportation of goods in bond between Atlantic and Pacific ports of the United States over the Canadian Pacific was taken up.

Mr. Washburn offered an amendment extending the scope of the inquiry to the Grand Trunk. He intimated a suspicion that the object of the resolution was to make war on the Canadian Pacific.

Mr. Cullom disclaimed any such intention. He accepted Mr. Washburn's amendment. The resolution as amended was agreed to.

Mr. Teller introduced a bill to give a pension of $3000 a year to Mrs. Jessie Benton Fremont. Referred to the Committee on Pensions.

Mr. Sawyer introduced a bill to establish a limited postal and telegraph service. Referred to the Postoffice Committee.

The Senate proceeded to executive business. When the doors reopened the Senate resumed consideration of the Sundry Civil Appropriation Bill.

The pending amendment increasing the appropriation for surveying public lands from $200,000 to $300,000, was adopted.

The next amendment that provoked discussion was one increasing the item for topographic surveys from $300,000 to $500,000 and adding these words: "One-half of which sum shall be expended west of the one hundred and first meridian, and so much of said sum as may be necessary for the purpose of making appropriations for sundry civil expenses of the Government for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1891, as provided for the selection and location of reservoirs and canals upon public lands and the reservation of irrigable lands is hereby repealed; provided, that reservoir and canal sites heretofore located or selected shall remain segregated and reserved from entry or settlement until otherwise provided by law."

Mr. Spooner announced his intention to vote for the amendment reported by the Committee on Appropriations. The cost of irrigation surveys had been placed, he said, at $7,000,000. His own opinion was that if the work was to go on the cost would be nearer $70,000,000 under the construction given to the act of 1888 by the Interior Department, and which construction he indorsed as correct, lands had been withdrawn from settlement comprising 1,300,000 square miles, or 850,000,000 acres. For what and for how long were these lands withdrawn in order that the Government might have reservoir sites and canal sites marked out for irrigation purposes? The Lord only knew how long it would take to carry out that plan. He thought Congress had made a great mistake when it appropriated a single dollar for irrigation surveys, and the sooner it retracted such the better it would be for the people.

Mr. Dawes, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported the Indian Appropriation Bill, carrying an appropriation of $7,163,811.

The discussion was resumed, and Mr. Platt argued in support of the amendment and in general defense of the desert land law, the swamp land law and other land laws of the United States. He favored the repeal of the irrigation law, and said that its retention meant that not a single acre of public lands affected by it could ever be entered by any homestead settler, and he charged that this was the object contemplated by the shrewd man who drew up that provision.

The discussion continued until 6 o'clock, when the Senate adjourned without action on the pending amendment.

House.—The House, after some preliminary sparring over approval of the journal and omission from the record of yesterday's tilt between Messrs.

Weak Women

Owe to themselves a duty to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, in view of the great relief it has given those who suffer from ailments peculiar to the sex. By purifying the blood, regulating important organs, strengthening the nerves, and toning the whole system, it restores the debilitated to health.

After 15 Years.

"For 15 years my mother has been troubled with milk leg. She went to different parts of California, as persons said the climate might help her, but it was of no avail, and I, being a druggist, thought I would get her to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. Before she had taken half a bottle she said she was improving, so she continued until she took half a dozen bottles, and now she is perfectly well. For nearly fifteen years she was unable to walk around, but now she can walk as well as ever." T. F. Blake, San Francisco, with C. F. Richards & Co., Wholesale Druggists.

Like a New Creature.

"I have been for years trying to get help for that terrible general debility and weakness common to women. Within a year I have taken ten or twelve bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I am now feeling like a new creature." Mrs. F. B. Ross, Marlin, Texas.

Cannon and Houk, went into committee of the whole on the Land Grant Forfeiture Bill.

After a brief discussion the committee rose.

Mr. Sweeney of Iowa presented the conference report on the bill authorizing the construction of bridges across the Iowa River at Wapello, Iowa.

Mr. Rogers of Arkansas raised the point of no quorum, and a call of the House was ordered. Only 142 members—less than a quorum—responded.

On motion of Mr. McKinley a resolution was adopted directing the Sergeant-at-arms to bring to the bar of the House such members as were absent without leave.

After waiting an hour and a half for a quorum to appear, Mr. Breckinridge moved that all leaves of absence be revoked.

Mr. Peters offered an amendment excepting those members absent on account of illness. Lost.

Pending a vote on Mr. Breckinridge's motion, Mr. Bliss of Michigan moved an adjournment, and the House adjourned.

AWFUL ATROCITIES.

Barbarities Practiced by Chinese Soldiers in Formosa.

CHICAGO, July 16.—[By the Associated Press.] Edwin Rexham, an English resident of China, now in this city, tells the following story of the Chinese expedition against Formosa: At the approach of the Chinese army the Formosan savages fled to the hills. That ended the campaign. Gen. Chen Tai returned with a few selected troops by steamer, leaving the rest to get back as best they could. Many marched overland, some were sent in freight boats with rations for one day, 30 or 40 starved to death and 250 or 300 died of fever. Landed at the harbor, the most horrible scenes were enacted. Dying men were strewn about the deck.

The Consul sent an appeal to Chen Tai who responded by sending grave diggers. These added to the horror of the situation. According to an old custom, when a soldier dies his officer draws the burial expenses from the government, part of which money goes to the dead man's comrades. This burial money was the incentive to the most horrible atrocities by the grave diggers. All the sick who were unable to be buried were hustled together and buried before the bodies were cold. It is told that soldiers were seen forcing the lid of a coffin down on a feeble victim who was crying for water. The coffin was nailed and the living man hurried away to burial.

ANOTHER WINDSTORM.

Blasts That Cause Many Alarming Rumors.

MINNEAPOLIS, July 16.—[By the Associated Press.] Very serious storms in the southern portion of Minnesota tonight prostrated the wires and cut off communication with many points. Since Sunday's experience everybody here has been uneasy over storms, and sensational reports were current that the city of Stillwater had been devastated by a cyclone. After the wires were got up to Stillwater it was found that very little damage had been done there. Then came a report that Marine, Anoka and other points had been greatly damaged. At a late hour tonight, however, advices from all points reported in trouble show that while the storm was very serious and great damage was done to farm property and light buildings there were no casualties.

Both Drowned.

DENVER (Colo.), July 16.—While John S. Jacobson and Mrs. John J. Huddart were rowing on Berkeley Lake last night, their boat overturned and both were drowned. Mr. Huddart is a partner in business with the dead man. The bodies were recovered late this afternoon. Jacobson was born in Chicago, where his parents now reside.

More Cyclone Victims Found.

MINNEAPOLIS, July 16.—The searchers found the three missing bodies of the victims of the Lake Gervais cyclone this morning. They were close to each other in a marshy portion of the lake, 200 feet from the shore. The bodies of Charles Schurmeier and Rev. M. Pfaff were considerably mutilated, but that of Mrs. J. H. Schurmeier was not disfigured.

Detained by a Washout.

PHOENIX (Ariz.), July 16.—There was a very bad washout on the Southern Pacific today near Bodie, detaining the west-bound train twelve hours.

A Murder That May Have Been the Work of the Apaches.

GLOBE (Ariz.), July 16.—[By the Associated Press.] Information was received last night of the discovery of the dead body of Edward Baker, at his cabin, in the Sierra Ancha Mountains, forty miles north of Globe. It is supposed he had been murdered on the 14th inst. Some doubts are expressed as to whether the deed was committed by Apaches or white "rustlers," but the fact that the body had been mutilated about the head points to killing by Indians. A number of horses were stolen and the cabin looted. Citizens from Salt River and Sheriff Thompson with a posse left yesterday for the scene of the tragedy. Troops and scouts from San Carlos and surrounding posts are also en route.

Death of an Editor.

PORTLAND (Me.), July 16.—E. H. Kewell, editor of the Portland Transcript, died of heart disease this morning.

Newsboys' Home.

The president and ladies of the board of managers of the Newsboys' Home desire to thank the friends who have proposed to help that worthy institution by giving an entertainment for its benefit, but prefer to appeal directly to the generosity of the public by the system of pledges of one dollar per month, rather than depend upon entertainments in which the expenses usually equal, if they do not exceed the receipts.

They therefore request the friends of the home, if they have anything to contribute, to do so directly, instead of buying tickets, as only a small per cent of the proceeds, if any, finds its way to the institution supposed to be benefited.
